

JCI Range Today

6,500 – 6,200 (Support), 6,565 – 6,625 (Resistance)

Jakarta Composite Index closed in negative territory on Friday, dropping nearly 2% or -131.78 points to a level of 6,515.63. The close below this crucial Moving Average support once again places JCI in a critical position, with the question of whether it will retest the 6,200 support level or even fall further towards the psychological level of 6,000. Positive sentiment from regional markets is expected to help push JCI back above the 6,565-6,625 range to protect against a continuation of the bearish wave.

ADVISE: Hold, Wait & See.
