Jakarta Composite Index

JCI strengthened again and closed at the 6,206.35 level (+0.72%), continuing its rebound after briefly touching the support gap area of 5,949 – 6,148. Although foreign investors still recorded a net sell of Rp2.22 trillion across all markets and the Rupiah weakened again to Rp17,738/USD, JCI movement began to show potential for a short-term recovery. Sectorally, 6 out of 9 sectors closed higher, with the transportation (+3.83%), financial (+1.42%), and property (+1.29%) sectors being the main supports for the index's strengthening.

Technically, JCI is still moving in a bearish trend but has begun to rebound from an important support area, with the RSI slowly rising from the oversold area. As long as JCI is able to hold above the 5,949 – 6,148 area, the opportunity for a continued strengthening remains open toward the 38.20% Fibonacci Retracement resistance in the 6,378 – 6,440 area. If the buying momentum continues, JCI has the potential to extend its gains toward the next resistance in the 6,588 area, which is the 50.00% Fibonacci Retracement. Meanwhile, the next strong support is at the 5,882 level if selling pressure increases again. KIWOOM RESEARCH expects JCI to still move volatile in the short term, but the opportunity for a rebound remains open as long as no new negative sentiment emerges from either external or domestic factors.

ADVISE: HOLD; Accumulation buy.
